

We are pleased to announce that our lobbies are open. When you arrive for your appointment, you can come inside to check in.

We will no longer limit the number of people per patient exam inside the hospital to one. Due to the limited space in our cat hospital exam rooms, however, we ask that no more than two people be present for cat hospital appointments.

We appreciate your patience through this transition back to normal!